Subject: Incorrect sentence in www2.gov.bc.ca/gov/content/careers-myhr/about-the-bc-public-service/ethics-standards-of-conduct/standards-of-conduct website
To ServiceBC,

While searching how a fired Employee, (fired after raising concerns about substandard practices and suggesting possible solutions), is to proceed, I found a mistake on your website

<https://www2.gov.bc.ca/gov/content/careers-myhr/about-the-bc-public-service/ethics-standards-of-conduct/standards-of-conduct>

There are 2 mistakes in the following statement:

"Where an allegation involves a Deputy Minister, the employee must forward the allegation to the Deputy Minister to the Premier."

First the obvious mistake is that the sentence is improperly worded.

The second mistake is that it appears as though the Employee is to contact the Deputy Minister (as well as the Premier). Please be aware that an Employee who informs a Deputy Minister of wrongdoing can be and has been fired for contacting the Deputy Minister. This happened to me when the BCPSA hired a well-known arbiter to block Arbitration contending that by contacting the Deputy Minister I had tried to negotiate a resolution and therefore went down the wrong channel.

To be clear, for having replied in writing to the Deputy Minister, I was found guilty of going down the wrong channel and therefore, I was not allowed a fair hearing to explain the wrongdoing of my supervisors.

Will you correct the sentence for clarity and for the truth that an Employee who contacts a Deputy Minister can be denied a fair hearing and subjected to retaliation.

Cordially,

Wrongfully Dismissed
